Rare Copy Of Treaties Handed To Judge

LONDON, Aug. 23 (Reuter) — Resuming his argument in the summons for a writ of habeas corpus in respect of the four Chinese prisoners in Tientsin, Sir Terence O'Connor, K.C., Solicitor-General, appearing for the Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax, before Mr. Justice Cassels in the King's Bench Division, handed the Judge a very rare copy obtained from the Foreign Office of various treaties affecting the relations between Britain and China.

Sir Terence O'Connor argued that Britain had no rights in China beyond those derived from the treaties. It was only comparatively recently, he declared, that it seemed it had been contemplated that there might be extension of a writ in relation to persons no ordinarily subject to the Crown.

Counsel continued that the power of authority vested in the King was in relation to his own isubjects but not in relation to a person 'not owing' allegiance to

SINGLES MATCHES DISAPPOINT: PROSPECTS THE WEEK - END

(By Jack Hy)

Last Saturday being wet, the Lawn Bowls programme had perforce to be cancelled. Though heavy rain fell in the morning, it was thought that the bowls matches arranged for that day could be played off as by afternoon the greens were quite dry. But another heavy downpour which fell an hour before the matches were due to start left the greens (most of which were actually under water) too sodden to be played on.

card, this, week's matches scalps of two former champions should mark the close of the in U. M. Omar and R."Duncan. lawn bowls' season, but actually there are clubs in the First and Third Divisions with as many as six (seven in the case of the Kowloon Bowling Green) matches unplayed.

This means that the season will stretch right into September or even the beginning of October if there are more postponements owing to rain. In that case bowls will undoubtedly clash with cricket which will get under way about then.

OPEN SINGLES CHAMPIONSHIP

The fairly large crowd which turned up at the Civil Service to see the two matches in the fourth round of the Singles Championship on Monday must have teen disappointed if they had expected to see evenly fought games. In both cases the matches were one-sided, both A. R. Dallah and M. R. Abbas of the Indian R.C. finding it surprisingly easy to dispose of C. M. Silva and A. E. Coates respectively.

It was not that the standard of bowls was poor. Indeed the two winners played bowls of a high order. It had to be to win in such easy fashion against bowlers like Alfred Coates and Charlie Silva.

But from the spectators, point of view both games were disappoint- decided. ing as little opposition was given the winners, Dallah winning his match on the 15th head by 21-7 and Abbas on the 19th by 21-12 after leading by 20-5 on the 15th.

Surprise Collapse

The collapse of Coates and Silva was incomprehensible.

The former who is a former singles champion of the Colony has of late been playing very well, so well in fact that from lead he has been made number three to B. W. Bradbury. Silva last year went far in the Singles Championship

According to the fixture-[ and had credit of bagging the Dallah was playing very well and was leading Silva by 12-0 before the latter could score. On the 14th head Dallah had 18 to his opponent's 7 and on the next, which proved to be the last he scored three to clinch the game. Silva was playing below form and was short most of the afternoon.

Coates' Mistake Where Coates fell down, on the other hand, was in being through -especially on the medium heads. Abbas struck form right from the word go and monopolised, the scoring up to the fifth head when he was leading by 8-0 before Coates could score. Abbas kept on pilling up the score and had 20 shots to Coates' 5 on the 15th

Then Coates" made a vain attempt to turn the scales in his favour by scoring a four, a single and a two to reduce the lead to 20-12. On the 19th head he was lying a couple, but Abbas played a beautiful follow-through shot to take the game.

Minu Wins Again

A. R. Minu recorded yet another victory in the name of the Indian R.C. when he beat A. M. Omar in a closely fought match at Recreio by 21-19. This match went to 25 heads before the issue w

Just how evenly matched these two players were can be judged by the fact that in the course of the game each took the lead in turn.

On the 22nd head, when the score stood at 16-all. Omar took a three to lead by 19-16. But for the rest of the game he failed to increase his score and allowed Fatty Minu to win by 21-19.

UNIVERSAL'S PRODUCTION

"THE SUN NEVER SETS," IS RATED A FAST-MOVING AND ENTERTAINING PICTURE ADMIRABLY PLAYED BY A CAPABLE CAST.

This is what a reviewer says of this film:

"In recent years Hollywood has ground out British Empire epics Lives of a Bengal Lancer,' The Charge of the Light Brigade, 'Gunga Din,' and others that have made the film capital Britain's best salesman of uncon scious propaganda.

With an eye to the visit of the King and Queen to American soil. Universal released another, 'Sun Never Sets.' But despite the publicity link, the picture is less an empire buildup than a bizarre mystery thriller a la E. Phillips Oppenheim.

BRITISH RAILWAY WAGES DISPUTE

LONDON, Aug. 23 (Reuter) -The Executive Committee of the Society of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen have decided to withdraw all labour on four main-line group railways on, and from, midnight on Aug. 26.

The Society and the National Union of Railwaymen are claiming a minimum pay of 50 shillings weekly against the recent increase of the minimum to 45 shillings. beyond which the railway companies maintain that their resources do not allow them to go.

NO STRIKE

The National Union of Railwaymen at a delegates Conference. decided to resubmit their claim for 50 shillings minimum to the National Tribunal.

Though the Society has only 58,000 members, against the Union's 366,000, they are the keymen and action by them would practically bring the railroads to a standstill.

HOME OF R. L. S. TO BE SOLD

Robert Louis Stevenson's family home in Edinburgh is shortly to come into the market. It is 17 Heriot Row, a stone-built. Georgian-style house which, until his death recently, was the property of Lord Kinross.

The house in Howard Place where R. L. S. was born is now a Stevenson museum. But the greater part of his childhood and early youth was spent at 17 Heriot Row. 'His "Child's Garden of Verses" was inspired in its nurseries.

"For we are very lucky With a lamp before our door.

And leerie stops to light it 'As he lights so many more. The lamp-standard in question is still there, attached to the area railings, but it is no longer in use. It. has been supplanted by a more recent gas lamp-post, which American tourists continually mistake for the original.

There is still living, in Edinburgh, a retired postman who delivered letters at 17 Heriot Row in Stevenson's time.

He is Mr. Robert F. Buchanan, who remembers meeting R. L. S. on the doorstep when he was at home during his father's last illness in 1887.

Mr Buchanan recalls the great man's velvet jacket and especially his fine, strong voice.

BY KUNG LING-KAI

(Special to the "Hongkong Daily Press")

The preliminary agreement reached between Britain and Japan seems to have considerably eased tension at Tientsin, though for a time it was feared that the dispute might lead to a "showdown" by force. Because Britain's interests stand sharply athwart Japan's ambitions in China, a clash between them has long been expected. While Britain is still insisting on the solution of the Tientsin incident as a local issue. Japan is using her self-manufactured dispute as a lever to further her own designs. Thus the issue involved in this agreement is something more than the interest and prestige of any one nation.

The "Hongkong Daily Press" learns from the most authentic sources that the Government of Hongkong has, in view of the many rumours which are at present rife, taken definite precautionary measures to cope with any situation that may arise and to preserve peace and order locally.

With a view to controlling the flood of people coming and going across the border, it has been deemed advisable to remove the railway and highway bridges which cross the Shumchun River.

EMPIRE CHAMPION WINS S. AFRICAN MARATHON

John L. Coleman, the Empire Marathon champion, has won the 19th running of the comrades marathon, from Maritzburg to Durban—a distance of 54 miles—in the record time of 6 hours 22 minutes and 5 seconds.

Coleman, who is a guard on the Durban Railway, thus bettered by one minute six seconds the record on the knee which resulted in septic arthritis—caused the death set up by him in 1937, when he beat the existing record of 8 hours 24 of John Allison Stevens, aged 14. said the City Coroner (Mr. E. T. minutes set up by Arthur H. Oram) at an inquest at Sydney. Newton, the famous runner

The empire champion, who defied superstition by carrying number practice on Centennial Park, ceived from the International body 13, said that this would be his last Bydney, and died a month later. It but the acceptance of the record appearance in the race.

In future, he said, he is going to concentrate on the "short" distance of 28 miles as he hoped to compete in the Olympic Games at Helsinki next year

RECORD ATTEMPT FAILS

MOTOR SPEED

SALT LAKE CITY (Utah), Aug. 22 (Reuter)-John Cobb, the British motorist, covered the mile in one direction yesterday at an average speed of 369.23 miles per hour, but his engine stalled during the return journey. Thus the attempt on Capt. Eyston's record of 357 miles per hour

Cobb's run, which was made northwards, beat the northward run made by Capt. Eyston when the latter established the record, namely, 356.44 miles per hour.

Athletes' Funds

LAST MINUTE DRIVE"

The last-minute drive for funds which featured American participation in the 1936 Olympic Games in Germany will not be duplicated next year, it was indicated in New York.

With the 1940 games at Helsing, fors, Finland, little more than year off, the American Olympic Committee reported favourable progress on a programme designed to send a full complement of Uncle Sam's stars to the 12th Olympiad.

The chairman of the 23 games committees had nothing but favourable reports President Avery Brundage," who returned "from Europe where he attended the meeting of the International Olympic committee and also made a flying visit to Helsingfors, said, "We are fortunate to be further advanced than we never have been a year before the games." FINANCIAL GOAL

The committee has set as its financial goal $375,000 to send team of 43 to the winter game next February in Garmisch-Partenkirchen, and 271 athletes and 50 officials to the summer games. To date, $4,804.34 has been raised, but many committees to raise funds and it was $375,000 would be raised.

BOXING PLANS The boxing committee, which hopes to raise $50,000 through 100 to 150 sectional try-outs for the teams, planned to create a trust fund of its own of $100,000. Other committees planned similar steps.

The rowing committee formed a new permanent organization, the Olympic Rowing Association, with membership open to colleges, universities and clubs. The idea is to keep in front of the athletes the goal of representing their country in the Olympics.

GIRL DISCOVERS SHE IS 100-YD. SPRINT CHAMPION

Miss Barbara Burke, the South African Olympic and Empire games runner, has held a world record for four years knowing it.

At the South African championships in 1935 Miss Burke smashed the national record by covering 100 yards in 11 seconds. Some time afterwards an athletic official, reading a report about the official holder of the record, noticed that the time was inferior to Miss Burke's

Correspondence between Northern Transvaal Athletic Association and the South African Association followed, and a few months later the South African Association officially applied to the International Amateur Athletic Federation for recognition of Miss Burke's record.

No official reply has been reof the federation which gives Miss "We won, Pop!" the boy had Burke as the holder.

The difficulty is lack of money. for it has not yet been decided who will finance the journey of the Jugoslav team. Both the Jugoslav Tennis Association and the Ministry for Physical Fitness have declared themselves unable to shoulder the financial burden.

Jugolav tennis fans, who are extremely anxious to see their crack Coroner is shown by the latest handbook players proceed to the United States, are placing their last hopes on Premier Zwetkovitch, who is said when he returned home with. The market opened with prices unchanged compared with Monday's closing quotations. The market was easy throughout the day, it being very difficult to sell forward rubber even at sacrifice rates, due to the sensational political news received early in the morning. Closing tone was slightly easier.

WNEW YORK COTTON

After being steady in the early session, prices firmed up on good trade buying and better foreign demand, apparently under the impetus of somewhat more hopeful turn of events abroad, as the most recent developments in Europe are regarded as lessening the possibilities of hostilities. Growing conditions continued to be favourable, but a consistent foreign and domestic trade demand met with scarcity of offerings towards the close.

NEW YORK RUBBER

Profit-taking sent prices on the down-grade and there was a further decline on lower advices from the foreign markets. Inventories are decreasing and we think that there are good prospects for a recovery in the near future.

CHICAGO WHEAT

"Excited markets and irregular fluctuations in prices emphasize the primary position of wheat as a sinew of War. The latest developments in Europe which are generally regarded as lessening the chances of war were reflected in lower wheat prices." However, concrete measures to clarify the situation are still anxiously awaited. The bearish estimates of the Canadian crop and a weak flour market have also been the causes of the easiness.

GENERALISSIMO'S ORDERS

CHUNGKING, Aug. 22 (Central) -Generalizaimo Chiang Kai-shek to-day wired to Dr. H. H. Kung. President of the Executive Yuan, instructing that special efforts should be made to protect the bumper crops harvested in Szechwan this year.

Generalissimo Chiang expressed satisfaction over the good crops reported over the whole province but pointed out that special attention must be paid to two special conditions arising out of this abundance. First, the price various grains has shown a down ward trend because of the bumper crops, and second, the rising labour cost is forcing many poorer farmers to leave their crops on the field unharvested for lack of assistance.

Troops To Assist

Regarding the second point. Generalissimo Chiang sald he has ordered all his troops to assist wherever possible in the harvesting of crops.

As regards the first point, Generalissimo Chiang directed that the Executive Yuan should immediately devise means, in consultation with the Szechwan Provincial Government, to maintain the price of grains at a suitable level. This may be attained by the Four Government Banks and the Farmers' Credit Bureau mapping out a comprehensive scheme for the purchase of crops

The Generalissimo concluded by ordering that every financial and other assistance must be extended to the farmers

EMERGENCY RATIONS:

Nutrition Research Committee's Suggestions

From time to time a certain amount of interruption or dislocation may take place in the food supply of a country and the Nutrition Research Committee have thought it desirable to place certain suggestions before the general public to meet such contingencies.

These proposals are based upon 1 On the 19th head he had not similar recommendations made by only levelled up but was actually the Food (Defence Plans) Departleading by 15-12. However, he ment of the Board of Trade in added only three more shots to Great Britain. his score up to the end of the game during which Remedios SYORAGE:-

> It is wise to mark such containers with the actual date of purchase of the foodstuffs so that the stock can be used regularly and replaced from time to time when fresh purchases become possible.

Certain articles of food lend vent the latter from taking full themselves to easier storage than do others. For example:entertain and should defeat the

(a) Carbohydrates: — biscuits, honey, cornflour, flour, jam, oatmeal, rice (unpolished as well as polished), sugar, treacle;

(b) 'Fats: — butter, dripping, gingelly oil, groundnut oil lard, olive oil, suet; "

(c) "Proteins: — bacon, beans (baricot and soya), corned beef, eigs (salted), eggs (in water glass), egg powder, herrings (tinned), lentils, peas, pork (saite(i), salmon (tinned), sardines (tlnned);

(d) Combined foodstuffs con: taining fats, proteins carbohydrates in varying proportionscheese, chocolate, milk (dried. powdered or tinned):

(e) Fruits and vegetables:apricots (dried), black currents and tinned or salted):

(f) Beverages, (compressed tablets).

The list of foodstuffs given above has been specially selected. not only from the point of view of storage but in order to make it possible for all requirements of a balanced dietary to be met. Mention has already been made of carbohydrates (sugar and starches) and fats needed for producing energy and warmth and to assist in the protection of the body from certain infections, and proteins (beans, cheese, eggs, fish, lentils, meat) for building up and repairing tissues.

Minerals are also of great importance in order to maintain life and health. Calcium (needed for building up bones and teeth and in the regulation of the growth of the body) is to be found in beans, cheese, eggs, milk oatmeal and leafy vegetables.

Iron (which gives the red colour to the blood) is present in beans, cocoa, corned beef, herrings (sardines), oatmeal, onlons, peas and spinach, tomatoes.

Phosphorus (a very important constituent of the bones and teeth), is contained in apricols. beans, beef, herrings, carrots, eggs, milk, peas and rice.

Iodine and certain other minerals are contained in adequate quantity in the foodstuffs mentioned in these notes and so need not be specified separately.

VITAMINS ESSENTIAL:

Vitamins are also essential in a Road I would give it to the Kow- | oil tins or drums can be sealed | diet capable of maintaining life. Without them an otherwise balanced diet could not be utilised by the body.

Vitamin A is present in butter, carrots, eggs, lentils milk and Vitamin B is found in apricots, beans (haricot and soya), carrots, milk, "oatmeal, peas, rice (unpolished).

Vitamin C is present in alfalfa. amaranth, banana, cabbage (and other green leafy vegetables even when tinned and dried), bottled juice of lemons, oranges, pineapple, pumelo, in such tubers as potatoes, sweet potatoes and yam which can be easily stored, and in tomatoes (puree and tinned).

Vitamin D is found in the body oil of fresh herrings, tinned salmon and in butter and eggs.

Other vitamins are also necessary, but need not call for special mention in these notes.

The important point to remember is that efforts should be made to ensure that the dietary selected contains foodstuffs in each of the various classes outlined above. QUANTITATIVE

REQUIREMENTS:-

A well-balanced diet which will (tinned), carrots (tinned), onions maintain an adult in a satisfac-(dried), prunes, raisins, spinach tory state of health should con-(tinned), tomatoes (tinned or tain 3 ounces of protein, the same puree), various vegetables (dried amount of fat and about 15 ounces of carbohydrate each day. condiments, The protein may be derived from etc.:-baking soda, cocoa, coffee, both animal sources (eggs, fish, cream of tartar, curry powder, meat) and vegetable sources mustard, pepper, salt, tea, yeast (haricot and soya beans, nuts. peas, sprouted pulses).

QUALITATIVE REQUIREMENTS: The fats may also be obtained (groundnut oil olive oil) sources of the former being of greater value although rather more expensive. Abundance of mineral salts and vitamins should be ensured by a liberal supply of fruit and vegetables and these will also furnish adequate cellulose content to produce a proper action of the bowels.

Should readers of these notes require any further information on the subject, every effort will be made by the Nutrition Research Committee (Medical Headquarters, Third Floor, G.P.O. Building, Hongkong) to answer any enquiries which should be accompanied by a stamped and addressed envelope.

ARMSTRONG LOSES TO AMBERS NEW YORK, Aug. 23 (Reuter)-

Lou Ambers regained the World Lightweight Championship last Hampshire v. Worcester 120 for 3; night when he outpointed the holder, Henry Armstrong in a fifteen-round bout.

Armstrong throw away his title, his style made them inevitable. AMBERS RECORD

Ambers kept up his record of never losing a return bout, though he was troubled greatly by the negro's savage attack and ripping

The fight will probably go down to bistory as a battle between managers one protesting against the fouls and the other against the penaltics. Ambers landed harder and cleaner, but was often tied up by Armstrong's whirlwind tactics. Armstrong's mouth was bleeding badly at the end.

ATTENDANCE AND RECEIPTS The attendance numbered 29,088 and the gross receipts were $137,925.
